Executive Summary

Founded in 1988, Whitewater Community Television (WCTV) serves to provide public, education and government (PEG) access television for the residents of Wayne County, Indiana. WCTV is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and operates three channels on the local Comcast cable system - Public Access Channel 21, Educational Access Channel 20 and Government Access Channel 11. Through strong links with the community, WCTV provides quality, professional and efficient media services to its viewers.

WCTV's Board of Directors consists of a diverse group of private citizens from many different sectors and communities throughout Wayne County.

Currently, 16 member-elected individuals serve on the WCTV Board of Directors and oversee the operation and administration of Whitewater Community Television.

Funding and support for WCTV comes from a variety of sources including:

- Franchise Fees through Wayne County Government and the City of Richmond;
- Indiana University East;
- Grants, Membership Fees and Donations;
- Fundraising and Underwriting;
- Production and Editing For Hire;
- No tax money is used to fund WCTV.

“WCTV is...
For the Community,
By the Community”

WCTV’s Goals

In addition to providing PEG access television to the residents of Wayne County, Whitewater Community Television’s goals are:

- To strengthen the fabric of community life by enabling open communication;
- To provide quality, locally produced television programming which is crucial to the free exchange of information and ideas necessary for a growing and learning community;
- Through optimal use of our programming, reflect the diversity and interests of the Wayne County Community and its residents.
